

20% Bridge Building DiSCount

Come build a bridge together for immediate impact and new insight into your team's dynamics.

This valuable, hands-on experience is a real eye-opener for teams with friction as well as those high-functioning teams that want to reach the next level.

- Uses the popular DiSC[®] assessment for accurate, personalized results
- Builds upon the material in one of our most requested programs, “Communication Skills for Teamwork”
- Makes learning fun, but also very practical and real life
- Outcomes are immediately transferable to your work setting
- Makes a great retreat for team building or a team reward

Available in either a 4-hour or 6-hour in-house training session
